1. The article has been seen by all the authors (signatures given below who are satisfied with its form and content). The authors-co-authors normally should not exceed six.
2. Due credit of authorship has been given to every scientist who has made a notable contribution to the paper and we are satisfied with the sequence in which the authors names appear in the by-line (authors' names).
3. The by-line of the article does not include any name of a scientist who has not made a notable contribution to the paper.
4. The name of the Institute appearing below the by-line is that of the Institute where the research was conducted and not of the Institute where the first author (or the author who has sent the paper) is currently employed.
5. The article and illustrations have been sent in soft copies in word and pdf format in email
6. The results reported in the article have not been sent simultaneously for publication in any other journal.
7. The article has not been published elsewhere either in a Journal or Souvenir or Research / Extension Bulletin.
8. The article has not been rejected for publication in any other Journal. Rejection elsewhere does not necessarily disqualify the paper for publication in the IJVSBT
9. If published, the copyright of this article would vest with SVSBT/Publisher, which has the right to enter into any agreement with any organization in India or abroad engaged in reprography, photo-copying, storing and dissemination of information contained in it, and neither we nor our legal heirs will have any claims on any royalty.
